Personal Allowances Worksheet
• Keep for your records.

Allowances approximate tax deductions that may reduce your tax liability. The number of allowances is determined by many factors including, but not limited to, filing status, how many jobs you have, and how many children or dependents that you claim on your income tax return.

Allowances claimed on the Form W-4N are used by your employer or payor to determine the Nebraska state income tax withheld from your wages, pension, or annuity to meet your Nebraska state income tax obligation.

4 a Enter "1" for yourself if no one else can claim you as a dependent. 4a _____ b Enter "1" if: • You are single and have only one job; • You are single and have only one pension; • You are married, have only one job, and your spouse does not work; or • Your wages from a second job, or your spouse's wages (or the total of both for the year) are $1,500 or less, or you have more than one pension. 4b _____ c Enter "1" for your spouse . But, you may choose to enter "-0-" if you are married and have either a working spouse, more than one pension or more than one job. (Entering "-0-" may help you avoid having too little tax withheld) 4c _____ d Enter number of Nebraska personal exemptions (other than your spouse or yourself) you will claim on your Nebraska income tax return. This is the number of children and dependents you will list on your Nebraska income tax return that qualify for either the child or dependent tax credit on the federal income tax return. 4d _____ e Enter "1" if you will file as head of household on your income tax return 4e _____ f Enter total of lines a through e here and on line 1 above. (Note: This may be different from the number of exemptions you claim on your Nebraska income tax return) 4f _____
